Growing Pains "Barracks" in City Spell Confusion For Commissioners & Planning Board

Inadequacies of existing City ordinances were brought to light by the barracks type building for housing Jamaican labor on which construction has been started by Royals, Inc., in the rear of Royal's Department Store, Belle Glade.

At a combined meeting Monday night of the City Commission and Planning Board the pros and cons of the legality and desirability of such a building in the heart of the city line was the main item of discussion.

IN BRIEF...

Chamber of Commerce secretary, L. P. Price says "watch for big things to happen soon on the corner of Avenue A and Main Street, opposite the Chamber building."

Jack Gorham at Coastal Motors was plagued with troubles Tuesday afternoon when broken water main water spewing all over the place. Someone reportedly dug too deep for additional flood light poles being installed.

Steel wire is being installed on the underpass bridge for pedestrian use over Hillsboro Canal at Main and West Palm Beach Road.

A small blaze at Ray's Radiator Shop Tuesday resulted from sparks flying while Ray was cleaning out radiator, we're told. Belle Glade Fire Department was promptly on the scene and only smoke damages involved.

The Chamber of Commerce staff is putting in busy days trying to find housing for the many people trying to locate in our town. "Why can't our folks here appreciate more all our town has to offer... and spend more of their dollars here to promote the natural growth striving to sprout in our area?" Mr. Price says. THAT IS THE ANSWER.

The Beck Building has had a lot of lifting this week. The old tenant's sign erased and the "BECK BLDG." freshly printed. We're pleased... as folks stop by daily looking for the "Sugar offices."

Burton Rawlin, a well known figure for 13 years at the Harris Service Station has resigned as assistant manager and taken off to West Palm Beach where he will be employed by American Oil Co. at their training station. He also plans to attend Palm Beach Junior College at night and take Public Administration. Best wishes and good luck were extended by his boss in his new venture.

"When the cat's away the mice will play" just ain't so! With our boss on a much needed and long delayed vacation in North Carolina the past week we've forced to meet a few interesting stories in spite of our effort extended.

With all eyes and interest focused on Berlin, reports from two families who have just returned from visits in Germany, we feel, would be particularly good reading. Henry Elfers and 9-year old Frederick are home from a jet flight two months visit with his father in Bremen, Germany. More on this next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kruse spent three months in their native Germany visiting at Stuttgart and Helmsdorf, traveling via the T. S. Express. They met the P. Pelka family in New York as they returned and the Kruses sailed. We're hoping for an interesting report on their visit for our next issue.

(A suggestion to Clubs — Both parties are excellent sources for interesting program material.)

Vacation is on for Albert B. Grigby, office manager for South Bay Growers, Inc. who returned Tuesday from spending a month with his family in Florida and relatives in Arkansas. Mrs. Grigby and their daughter both spent a big and busy vacation the past year. Graduating this year from the U of F, the daughter accompanied her parents to Arkansas to visit her husband, a Lt. in the Air Force, stationed in Little Rock.

Personal Survival Is Topic Tomorrow For Lions-Rotary

Some of us have been looking at Florida cattle a great many years and most of this time have made excuses and apologies for the poor showing they made to all of us, whether visitors or loyal Floridians. But times have changed and we no longer need to make excuses for most of our beef cattle. We still have some examples of cattle certainly not of the best. This we must unfortunately still admit.

I am reminded of an incident involving Herbert Speer, affectionately known as "Prof" Speer to hundreds of people in the Glades. Herbert had noticed several truck loads of cattle being driven toward the freight yards and decided to see what was happening. He found several cars of cattle already loaded and more being loaded. Herbert found a man who looked like he might know the situation so he introduced himself as Assistant County Agent. The man gave him his name and said he was from California and was shipping the cattle west. "What are you doing, taking them to California to show what poor cattle we have in Florida?" Herbert told me later that the specimens the California had collected were of the worst. The man then explained the cattle were being purchased for use in "Western" movies.

But not now! Our cattlemen visitors recognize the progress we have made in improved type and better breeding. This is the first time we have seen more and more of our animals headed eventually to feed lots in the west and the north.

It is a pleasure to see the good condition and appearance of our cattle. To me this indicates quality in our cattle and in our State. As the saying is, "Our cattle are growing well on our pastures all over the Glades. We think the most profitable deal in the raising of Florida is here on our Glades pastures."

Herbert told me later that the

No Apologies Now! Florida's Cattle Better And Better; Glades Pastures Are Profitable Deal

(EDITOR'S NOTE — This interesting report on the progress of the cattle industry in the Glades by County Agent E. S. Weldon is the first of the forward-looking, every body can understand, in this, America's Last Frontier.)

City Election Set For September 12th

For the first time in Belle Glade, three city commissioners were unopposed in a city election, city clerk Vera Jones announced this week. Deadline for nominating was August 23rd.

It is still necessary to hold an election, even though there is no opposition, she said, and citizens are urged to cast their vote at the City Election, September 12, at American Legion Hall.

Incumbents are Commissioner Clyde Parrish of Northboro, Commissioner Paul Davidson of Westboro, and F. C. Markham of Centralboro.

Down Goes Another "Old Land Mark"

The west annex building of the Fears Department Store on Avenue A is being razed this week by A. L. (Bud) Davis of Pahokey, after all these many years.

On contact with ex-city inspector N. B. Willis, we're informed the first non-conformative notice was issued in 1949 by him. "During the 12 year interim several repair permits have been issued and through pleadings by the owner certain extension have been granted," Willis said.

The building has been vacated for rental occupancy for over a year. Another old Belle Glade landmark dating back before the '26-'28 hurricanes leaves the scene, removing too, fire hazard to the up-town area.

Life Still An Interesting Challenge To Mrs. Araminta Crech At 89

Living close to nature, the Bible her close companion plus daily keeping abreast of current events and a capacity for a genuine interest in people have brought Mrs. Araminta Young Crech to an active 89 years YOUNG.

Mrs. Crech celebrated her 89th birthday at her home on Palm Beach road August 22, with her four daughters and her oldest son, Robert Y. Crech, Sr., and their families here on the occasion. Other relatives and a host of friends stopped by during the day.

What has kept Mrs. Crech a young 89? "A faith to live by, a work to live for, a family to love and be loved by and a joy in giving to and for others," she believes, would be the answer.

A member of the Methodist Church for 71 years, Mrs. Crech was active in every phase of church and community life as long as her health permitted. She is a devout Christian, believing firmly that "everything she ever saved is what she gave away."

At the age of 76 Mrs. Crech opened the florist business here, supposedly for a grandson who was returning from the war with rheumatic fever. When his interest died in short time Mrs. Crech declared "I always wanted to be a florist... housework alone doesn't interest me... and that, her youngest daughter explained, "is how we started the florist business, even tho' I was fully employed!"

She is the mother of eight children, Robert Y. Crech, Sr., Fort Myers Beach; Louis Crech, who died in 1938; Emily Moore, Sparta, Georgia; Lavina Durham, Jacksonville; Silas Morton Crech, Bethesda, Md.; William Crech, Bethesda, Md.; Frances Rachel Boone, Jackson, Miss.; and Sara Lee Crech, Belle Glade.

Mrs. Crech has 13 grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren and has a capacity for enjoying a close association with the young ones yet. She's devotedly interested in their furthering their education. "If children only realized what education means and take it seriously," she tells them.

With a great appreciation for education, Mrs. Crech was heard to say, the day prior to this birthday, "If I knew I could get out and work a bit in the yard, I'd enroll for that Horticulture Course at Palm Beach Jr. College." She has attended every possible workshop, florist course and convention since

Christian Training At Camp Ridgecrest Part Of Activities

Camp Ridgecrest 33rd session for boys 1961 summer camp ended Monday night, August 27, with a buffet for over 300 guests and an open council Ring on the upper green.

Many of the Belle Glade youth attended the sessions at Ridgecrest, N. C. where Bob Kent, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Kent, Sr., was camp coordinator and Billy Tom Forsee and Doug Thompson were counselors this summer. Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Schaeppel and girls, Susan and Melissa accompanied their son Skipper to the final night activities.

The following is taken from The Ridgecrest Peddler, the Camp Newspaper. This council Ring included much color... dances, games and ceremony and created a true Indian Camp Scene as Camp Ridgecrest is based on the Indian theme. Skippers, Wayne Chastain, (Camp Director) resigned over the council, the last meeting of the year of the mighty Ridgecrest Nat'l. Awards were presented to Campers, who achieved distinction in many phases of camp life.

Flagstaff service, held the night before the Council Ring by each tribe is a traditional service that permits each camper to say whatever lies on his heart as he casts a stick into the fire of friendship. A message from the camp fire was... "You have seen me, as Wise One, the medicine man, call upon Wakonda, the Great Spirit, to send fire from Heaven to light our council ring. Men all over the world are crying for some great spirit to come crushing down upon this darkened world and bring the fires of peace and love. Men, be this fire... Let God work his magic through you! Give so that you will reflect Christ, Give as one who walks with Jesus. Our Savior and Master called you and me the light of the world; he meant it, and if we belong to him, we will be that light. We have learned to love one another and our lives have been richer and warmer because of this love. Don't let it die, keep it alive as you go out into the world and share it with others."

Outstanding camp activities include the several days hike and camping trip some on the Appalachian Trail and some third year campers enjoyed a 4 day canoe trip around Lake James. Softball was enjoyed with various other teams. It was the best year of all at Camp Ridgecrest, which closed with the thought that was carried throughout both sessions that "God Needs a Man."

Returning Sunday from a weeks vacation at New Smyrna Beach were Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Lee and children Linda, Terry and Kathy Ray. They stayed at The Waverly Courts and enjoyed swimming and sunning on the beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Averill and girls, Margo, Jody and Dolly are back from a ten day vacation, during which they visited with old friends in New York City. Making the trip by car they enjoyed a tour of mountain regions enroute home.

Mr. and Mrs. Errol Mixson returned this week from Roanoke, Va., in time to celebrate their grand daughter, Christine Kay Humphries' first birthday, August 30. Mrs. Mixson joined her husband in June as he followed the produce business during the season.

ADDS UP TO PROGRESS!

More numbers are needed to provide telephone service for Florida's growing number of new homes, businesses, plants and factories and this new numbering system will permit many more number combinations in each exchange. Eventually, it will be given to all telephones in this area and throughout the country. So — as we make this change — we are sure you, too, will welcome it as another sign of Florida progress.

MR. AND MRS. CHAS. ROYAL

Candlelight, lavish greenery and antique ivory enhanced the evening marriage of Miss Barbara Bowman Olinger to Mr. Charles Franklin Royal in the Emmanuel Evangelical Lutheran Church in Woodstock, Va., on Saturday. The Reverend James K. Cadwallader officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glendon Olinger of Woodstock. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. George L. Royal of Belle Glade, Florida.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of antique ivory French lace over ivory satin that she designed and made herself. Sleaved lace covered the neckline, ruffled bodice and skirt. The bodice was cut to taper to a point over the bride's wrists. The intermission skirt was accented in back by a row of 18 mother-of-pearl buttons which joined the bodice and by a short, scalloped over-skirt that draped softly from the waist back. Her ballerina length veil of ivory tulle with applied French lace scallops fell from a tiara of pearls and crystal beads. The bridal bouquet consisted of ivory Fuji mums with trailing satin ribbons also of the predominant ivory blue.

Kracked Keglers Top Summer League

THE GIRLS WITH HIGH GAME and high series were Lee Ann Berryhill and Janet Hotard.

TWO TROPHY WINNERS were Ernest Amedee who had high 3 game series of 543, and Mike Berryhill, high game of 228.

Six national scholarships of $400 each will be awarded to 4-H Club members next November. Awards will be based on outstanding work done in the 4-H field crops program, says the National 4-H Service Committee.

The top-ranking sextet will be selected from 48 state winners and all will be delegates to the 40th National 4-H Club Congress convening in Chicago Nov. 26-30 at the Conrad Hilton hotel. Around 1,550 boys and girls, winners in some 30 categories from every state, will attend the annual event accompanied by state 4-H club leaders and other Cooperative Extension Service personnel.

The field crops program last year had an enrollment of well over 275,000 club members, a record high during the last five years, the 4-H Service Committee reports.

Through this program, 4-Hers have an opportunity to learn how to do a good job in crop production, harvesting, management and marketing by using recommendations from the USDA and the Extension Service. Members have consistently shown better quality crops, higher yields and income resulting from participation in the project.

Awards in the program are given by the Arcadian Products Department of Allied Chemical Corp., New York. Besides the college scholarships, the firm provides funds to bring the state winners to the Chicago meeting.

At the local level, gold-filled medals of honor are given to as many as four champions in each county. Another record was reached last year when 5,568 members in 1,984 counties received medals.

Visits Here

J. W. Martin New Business Manager For School Board

John W. Martin, assistant superintendent in charge of business affairs for Palm Beach County School Board, made his first official visit to the Glades last Friday.

In behalf of Superintendent Howell L. Watkins, Martin gave the official welcome to the more than 700 teachers attending the District Eight meeting at Lake Shore High School. Board members, Turner and Milton Carpenter also addressed the group.

Mr. Martin, whose appointment to this new post became effective August 1, was born in Hawthorn, Florida and attended High School there. He graduated from Florida Business University, Jacksonville, receiving his BA degree from the University of Florida and his MA degree from Stetson. Since 1935, Mr. Martin has been in school work in Alachua County where since '46 he has held a position similar to the one he has accepted here.

"By careful planning and buying a great many tax dollars can be put to more effective use in our school systems," Mr. Martin said. Previous to Mr. Martin's appointment Palm Beach County School Board was one of the few larger counties operating without a business manager.

Remember your first day of school? Probably not, but we should remember school zones, says Carol Lane, women's travel director of Shell Oil Company and sponsor of the National Safety Council's Carol Lane Awards for Traffic Safety.

Over 1,000,000 Florida school children will be depending on your caution to protect their safety.

What Is Life Insurance

There are debit collectors;
 There are insurance "peddlers."
 There are debit and life insurance salesmen;
 There are "Life Underwriters" who are serious-minded, ambitious, and studious, with always the vision of the rungs of the professional ladder above — and there're always rungs above whatever level of attainment is reached in this service to ones most important — the widow and children, or old age with its unworried contemplation period.

Life Insurance, and not death insurance, except for burial and immediate necessities, is the foundation of a modern-day Underwriter's recommendation.

The Life you have to live when necessity or desire brings retirement; the life your family must live when normal income sources are restricted or stopped; the life of each of your children must live through high school and thru college — these are the lives of life insurance to families.

The life of a business is distorted, and sometimes wrecked by the forced elimination of a key man through income tax, and/or adjustment while another takes up.

Death insurance is merely incidental to most insured — life insurance and it's application to the needs of every individual is the life-study of all Life Underwriters.

Life Underwriters provide the material things to individuals, families, and business, to support the moral and mental stability and expanding integrity of its recipients.

The Glades Underwriters Association is progressive in its efforts to not have "peddlers" inflicted on the public.

A Tribute To Gene Duncan

Editor's Note — The following letter was received by the Herald from a letter writer who was a close friend of Gene Duncan, who was killed in the line of duty while serving with the United States Army. The letter was written by a man who was a close friend of Gene Duncan, who was killed in the line of duty while serving with the United States Army. The letter was written by a man who was a close friend of Gene Duncan, who was killed in the line of duty while serving with the United States Army.

Dear Mr. Duncan,
 I'm writing to thank you for all the help you gave in helping me get into the Army. I sure do appreciate it very much.

I also want to thank you for putting me in the home in West Palm Beach because if you hadn't it was no telling where I'd be today. At first, I'll admit, I was pissed, but I found out later that it was for my own good.

You probably think that there are a lot of guys who hate or despise you, at least there probably are a lot who say they do anyway, but I'm sure later on in life that they will thank you for your help in some way or other.

I want you to know that I've lived as good a life as anyone could live since I was released from the home, but at times like now it seems that once you've done something you can never live it down no matter how hard you try.

I'm just thankful to God that I got set on the right track before it was too late. I just hope you'll continue to help guys like me through their hard spots in life before it's too late for them, at least you can try, that's all anyone can do.

I want you to know that the help you gave me was not in vain.

Well I'll close, keep up the GOOD WORK.

P. S.
 Thanks again

Uncle Dan From Democrat River

Dear Mister Editor:
 Several serious items were taken up by the fellers at the country store Saturday night. First off, Ed Doolittle announced, he has discovered accidental — a important weakness in our form of Government.

Ed said he's been reading the bank ads in them big Sunday papers and he ain't saw a single one that didn't list four or five vice presidents. Everybody knows says Ed, that all banks is making money, paying dividends and never been known to operate at a loss in the red. It's on account of them vice presidents, claims Ed. If a bank needs four or five vice presidents to operate real good, Ed allows as how the Government will never get the budget balanced with just one.

Then Clem Webster shook up the meeting with the news that this feller James Patton, head of the National Farmers Union, is asking the Congress to make it unlawful to farm with out a license. He claims that farmers can't practice law or medicine and ain't right for lawyers and doctors to be raising their own vegetables.

All the fellers was in favor of this license business and Zeke Grubb said he was going to write his Congressman right away. A rancher can't run a extension cord to his barn on account of him not having a electric license, and I don't see how them electric fellers has any right to be raising their own peas and corn without a farm license. In some states a farmer ain't allowed to unstop his kitchen sink without calling a plumber, and a plumber ain't got no right to be hurting the price of beef by raising himself a steer.

They thought to certain requirements afore you city feller can get a license to lift a hoe. I'd say offhand that you ought to have at least two hogs, a silo, two hound dogs, a cow, 40 hens and a rooster that crows fer 20 minutes at daylight. On top of that, you ought to have to fill out them rotating and estimating forms and read all them pamphlets they send out from the farm agencies.

I'm in favor of making doctors, lawyers, plumbers, barbers and all them other professions that protects their business with licenses stay out of the farm business. It ought to be a $10 fine fer a doctor to even raise a blue-top turnip. Us farmers need some protection in this business.

And speaking of protection, it's getting to be a pretty com-

As Newspapers Go, So Goes a Town

THE CIRCULATION of newspapers in the United States is at an all-time high—59 million daily. This is a sign that the country is healthy, too, for a growing community almost always indicates a growing newspaper and state.

Most newspaper readers realize that the American press is an integral part of any community, performing a wide variety of services in addition to informing and entertaining the public.

The American Newspaper Publishers Assn., at a recent convention, promote "better government, public health, and welfare of young people and rescue of the distressed."

Commenting on the newspaper's role in the community, the Augusta Herald recently said: "We doubt whether any community could prosper without newspaper support of its Chamber of Commerce, its local business activities, Scouts, Red Cross, 4-H Clubs, United Fund, its schools and churches, veteran services and numerous other activities."

But perhaps the most penetrating appraisal of the newspaper came from a six-year-old girl who wrote to an editor in California the following:

"Newspapers. We need them so we can know who reks and drownds and who shoots somebody. And who wants a house and who dies or gets a baby. It tells if your dog is lost. They are good on shelves and to make bond fires. They also go under a baby's plate and to keep dogs off things. You can wrap potato peels in them. You can put one when you defrost. They tell about shows and how much things are."

The editor added this P. S.: "Diana, they are good to swat things with, like flies and public officials and things."

"I've said good-bye to sweat and toil"

"DON'T GET ME WRONG, MISTER . . . farming is no pink tea party. But now Reddy Kilowatt does the back-breaking tasks. You'd be surprised how much of my work Reddy has taken over. He sure has speeded up the farm chores. I produce more now . . . farm better . . . and live better.

"Water heating, feed grinding, milking, tool grinding, incubating, hay drying and barn cleaning are just a few of the things Reddy does for me - works full time for part-time wages. Electricity costs so little, I can afford a lot. Hear that jingle? That's the extra cash Reddy has put in my pockets."

IN THE RURAL HOME, TOO . . . Reddy provides the comforts and conveniences of modern electric living . . . in the kitchen, in the laundry . . . less work, more leisure, for happier Florida living.
